With the release of Superman in 1978, DC Comics rushed ahead and practically invented the blockbuster superhero genre. Decades later, with dozens of animated films, live-action shows, and a new cast-led DCEU (DC Extended Universe) film series to rival Marvel, the sprawling franchises have finally found their permanent home on HBO Max. DC Universe, the former DCEU content platform, was rebranded as DC Universe Infinite by WarnerMedia in January 2021 and focuses solely on the library of over 24,000 comics. HBO Max will be the exclusive streaming platform for DC content, and a massive catalog was added in January, including the critically acclaimed Batman: The Animated Series and several Batman movies. The move was anticipated after the highly-rated DC Universe series Doom Patrol was repackaged for a second season as an HBO Max original earlier last year. DC content on HBO Max includes new series, DC classics and DC Universe originals like Young Justice, Titans and Stargirl, as well as the popular adult animated series Harley Quinn. Fans can also now watch the DC Justice League Snyder Cut 2017, a four-hour Director's Cut directed by Zack Snyder and currently streaming on HBO Max. How can I watch HBO Max online for free? If you want to stream upcoming DCEU shows and movies online, you'll need to subscribe to HBO Max. HBO Max subscriptions are currently $14.99 per month, but if you've been waiting for a subscription for a while, now is the perfect time. One of the best HBO Max streaming deals right now comes from AT&T. Eligible AT&T customers can now get HBO Max for free as part of their unlimited phone, TV, and Internet plans. You'll have unlimited, ad-free access to every HBO TV Show, Movie, Documentary, and Max Originals, plus the entire new roster Warner Bros. is listed on the platform in 2021. The action kicked off with the Wonder Woman 1984 online stream, but even though the movie left the platform in January, you can still watch DC movies like Zack Snyder's Justice League and wait for upcoming titles like The Suicide Squad, worth? With an HBO Max subscription, you can stream DC movies in 4K Ultra HD, HDR 10, Dolby Vision, and Dolby Atmos for free from your computer, phone, gaming console, or TV. The streaming service is now officially available on Amazon Fire TV and Roku, Xfinity X1 and Xfinity Flex devices. What DC live action movies are available on HBO Max? We've put together our list of all the DC movies currently streaming on HBO Max, sorted by their release year. While DC movies from recent years like Justice League and Batman v Superman have shaped expanded universe history in a similar way to the MCU, the movies on this list are much more standalone extras like The Joker or have their own standalone canon like The Knight Christopher Nolan's Dark Trilogy. Contrary to our Marvel watch guide, we don't recommend a particular viewing order, as the DCEU has as many alternate universes, time travel, and reincarnation gadgets as the comic books they're based on.
