History Música emerged when Columbia records President Clive Davis, listening to an early version of Asbury Park N. J., felt the Album that did not have a potential unique. Springsteen wrote this and "Spirit at night" in response. According to Springsteen, he wrote the music passing by a rhymed dictionary in search of appropriate words. The first line of music: "Drummers Madman, Chatinhos and Sends in the Sums with a teenage diplomat" is autobiography - "Madman Drummers" is a reference to drummer Vini Lopez, known as "Mad Man" (later, changed for "Crazy Dog"); "In the summer," refer to the name of the old team of Springsteen; "Teenage Diplomat" refers to himself. [1] "As the teenager pumps in his hat" reminds his aunt Dora Kirby claiming "Bruce never took his baseball hat." A "cheerful" is baseball for when a pitcher continues to beat beaters. [2] The rest of the music speaks of many non-related events, with the refraction of "blinded by light, cut like a Deuce, another corridor at night." "Blind by light" was the first single of Asbury Park's health, the version of N. J. Springsteen was commercially unsuccessful and did not appear in the graphics of music. Its version includes the "chopsticks" the melody played on the piano near the end of the Música Bridge. The track reached No. 1 on the Hot 100 Billboard and the Canadian RPM graphics. The record of the land band of Manfred Mann of "blinded by light" is the only number 1 of Springsteen as a composer in HOT 100; his largest single graphic as a solo artist was "dancing in the dark" in 1984, which reached No. 2 in hot 100, and his only No. 1 was as part of the US for the Ensemble Africa "We are the world.. Lyrics Mannfred Mann's Earth Band's record of music changes the lyrics. The most prominent change is in the refront, where" loose cut like a springsteen "is replaced by" accelerated A Deuce. [3] The lyrics is a reference to the Ford 732 V8 Automobile, which enthusiasts appealed" Deuce Coupe ". Springsteen liked clinical hot stems in his youth. "Cut loose like a Deuce, another corridor at night." As the line is frequently Mishard as "wrapped as a Douche," Springsteen joked on confusion on the letters, claiming that it was not until Manfred Mann rewrow the music to be about a female hygiene product that became popular. [1] According to Manfred Mann, it was the idea of Chris Slade drummer to use the chords of "chopsticks" (the music had at that point already integrated into the arrangement) as a transition between the parts of the music. The confusion "Deuce" / "Douche" stems from technical problems [4] (which can be confirmed comparing with live recordings). I do not think Springsteen liked our blind by light, because we sing 'wrapped like a Douche', and it was not written like that and I spoiled completely. It looked like "Douche" instead of "Deuce", 'Cos of the Technical Process - a defective azimute due to anger of the medical tape, and that meant we could not remix it. The Warners at Amany said, 'You have to change' Douche 'because the rodium stations of the Belt of the South Bela think it is about a vaginal shower, and they have problems with the parties of the body down there. We try to change it to 'Deuce', but then the rest of the runway sounded horrible, so we had to leave it. We just said, 'If it's not a success, it's not.' But in the end, it was no. 1 in the study, and so many people came to us and said, 'Do you know why you did No. 1? ... Everyone was speaking if it was Deuce or Shower.' Apparently, Springsteen thought we had done deliberately, which we did not have, if I saw him, I avoided him like a scared little boy. "Manfred Mann, record collector interview (August 2006).
