Quotes in 'The Crucible' are based on various themes, but three of the main themes of the book are love, fear and witchcraft. There are so many important quotes in 'The Crucible' on these topics. Some of the quote are 'The Crucible' quotes about fear, accusation quotes, and different character quotes from 'The Crucible'. We have listed the best ones for you here. 1. "I am a minister of the Lord, and I dare not take a life without there be a proof so immaculate no slightest qualm of conscience may doubt it." - Reverend John Hale, Act three, page 92.This quote was made by Reverend Hale regrading the proof of witchcraft. These lines show that people who believe in witchcraft want to take actions that have severe consequences. Reverend Hale wants certainty before any actions are undertaken. 2. "Let either of you breathe a word or the edge of a word... and I will bring a pointy reckoning that will shudder you." - Abigail Williams, Act one, page 20.The wrongdoings of Abigail come to light and the readers come to know her actual character through powerful lines like this.3. "Abigail! Don't lie! To Hale: She comes to me while I sleep; She's always making me dream corruptions!" - Abigail Williams, Act one, page 41.This quote was made by Abigail in anger, she is furious because Miller has called her a liar. It is ironic as she has lied throughout the play yet is now angry at the accusation.4. "No man may longer doubt the powers of the dark are gathered in monstrous attack up on this village. There is too much evidence now to deny it." - Reverend John Hale, Act two, page 61.This is one of the most famous Reverend Hale quotes delivered in the play. Reverend Hale thinks that the village is under the powers of demons or under the powers of dark magic. However, what is affecting Salem most, is the fear and suspicion. 5. "There is a misty plot afoot so subtle we should be criminal to cling to old respects and ancient friendships. I have seen too many frightful proofs in court - the Devil is alive in Salem, and we dare not quail to follow wherever the accusing finger points!" - Reverend John Hale, Act two, page 68.The quote is one of the most famous hysteria quotes from the book as the lines expresses the fear and hysteria of people during the Salem Witch Trials. Hale demonstrates the mindsets of the book's characters, filled with fear and hysteria. 6. "I never knew what pretense Salem was, I never knew the lying lessons I was taught by all these Christian women and their covenanted men! And now you bid me tear the light out of my eyes? I will not, I cannot! You loved me, John Proctor, and whatever sin it is, you love me yet!" - Abigail Williams, Act one, page 19.The quote is one of the most memorable Abigail quotes from 'The Crucible'. Abigail Williams delivered this quote in her conversation with John Proctor. The lines refer to her past love affair with Proctor. 7. "I never had no wife that be so taken with books, and I thought to find the cause of it, d'y'see, but it were no witch I blamed her for. He is openly weeping. I have broke charity with the woman, I have broke charity with her." - Giles Corey, Act three, page 79.This quote was made by Giles Corey, who is among the most sensible and calm characters of 'The Crucible'. Giles was trapped in hysteria during the witchcraft trials as his wife was found accused of being a witch. Giles was shocked by his wife's strange and different behavior.8. "My name is good in the village! I will not have it said my name is soiled! Goody Proctor is a gossiping liar!" - Abigail Williams, Act one, page 12.This quote is made by Abigail, who is very much concerned about her reputation in Salem. She says that she does not want to soil her name. This statement from Abigail shows how important her reputation is to her.9. "Mr. Hale, as God have not empowered me like Joshua to stop this sun from rising, so I cannot withhold from them the perfection of their punishment." - Reverend Samuel Parris, Act four, page 3.In the above quote, Reverend Samuel Parris asks Judge Danforth to prevent the executions of John Proctor and Rebecca Nurse. The quote was made after Mercy and Abigail ran away during the trial, creating a suspicion of the whole witch trial's credibility.10. "You have a faulty understanding of young girls. There is a promise made in any bed." - Elizabeth Proctor, Act two, page 61.This one of the most profound Elizabeth proctor quotes from 'The Crucible'. Elizabeth Proctor is the wife of John Proctor. During Elizabeth's conversation with John Proctor, she says that Proctor has little understanding of Abigail, who he is having an affair with.11. "I only hope you'll not be so sarcastical no more. Four judges and the King's deputy sat to dinner with us but an hour ago. I—I would have you speak civilly to me, from this out." - Mary Warren, Act two, page 57.This is one of the best Mary Warren quotes. During the witch trial, Mary Warren started receiving respect because of her greater power and position. 12. "We burn a hot fire here; It melts down all concealment." - Judge Danforth, Act three, page 83.This is one of the Judge Danforth quotes from 'The Crucible'. It is spoken during his conversation with John Proctor. The term "hot fire" is a metaphor used to describe the disturbed environment of Salem, so this quote can be understood as a warning to John Proctor that he must tell the truth when faced with the allegations against him.13. "What victory would the Devil have to win a soul already bad? It is the best the Devil wants, and who is better than the minister." - Reverend John Hale, Act one, page 22.Reverend John Hale says this quote to Betty. Hale thinks that the devil is after Betty because she is innocent, yet the guilt of the all the incidents has made her ill. 14. "If Jacobs hangs for a witch he forfeit up his property—that's law!
