As we receive questions, we will continue updating this page. The law does not require or even refer to school districts (or youth athletic activity organizers) need to complete the basic line tests (impact). This was discussed at the meeting of director MaiSisi/Area-3 of August 8, 2012 and Area-3 and at the meeting of the August council. The entire meeting of the director held at the BOCC). Or request any medical information from the students, but work with the schools to ensure our student athletes are safe. If one or more of these danger signs occur after a shock, a blow or a shock on the head or body: call 9-1-1 or transport the athlete immediately to the emergency room. However, in cases where medical professionals are not present or immediately available, a person must be present, at least certified by EMT or currently certified by the Red Cross Community First Aid or the equivalent.
