How to set a video as your lock screen android

How to set a video as my lock screen. How do i set a video as my lock screen.

Manufacturers offer more and more customization options. However there are many things that users would like to do but they are not possible. For this reason, many suggestions of times can be made to the brands, which sometimes have an effect. Today we will see how to put a video as a background of the lock screen on Huawei phones. This is one of the functions that do not have a native method of customization from the mobile phone. However, we have enough tools to do it. For this, we will have to satisfy some requirements, like having emui 10.1 or emui 11. Put a video as the background of the lock screen can be something spectacular. A video like WallpaperRequirements to meet him we can test with the sample video, which can be downloaded from here. However, we can put any video recorded with our mobile phone or another type of clips downloaded from the network, as long as it is a €
